

Director tent

Airtight tent for any event

Organizing a party (wedding, birthday, anniversary, business opening or open day), or a performance by a band, artist or speaker? And part of the event has to be under a marquee to cover every eventuality and to ensure the person celebrating (or speaker), stays dry when it starts to rain? Or to prevent a barbecue or buffet from getting waterlogged? It goes without saying that you, an employee of a rental company, have planned ahead and purchased this airtight event tent. It is on moments like this that you can show your customer what you are capable of! In standard sizes, but also available in a customized version.

Airtight, so no blower required once it is fully inflated

The beauty of this event tent is the fact that it is airtight. This means that after setting up the tent in 10 minutes with the included blower, you'll no longer need this tool, but the tent will stay properly inflated. Putting it up and taking it down is a one-person job, but doing it with 2 people is more practical.

A 5-year warranty on this top tent

JB supplies this very reliable inflatable event tent in any conceivable size and color. We are certain this is a quality product, that is why we gladly provide a 5-year warranty for it. And should something be broken, no problem: during those 5 years we will repair it for free.

Purchase this airtight practical event tent as an addition to your collection and deliver the experience your customers will remember as a carefree day... At least in terms of the weather.

More than 15,000 customers have also opted for JB
